Corporate News – Contactless Smart Cards

Zurich, May 2009

New contactless LEGIC® solutions for the United Kingdom through partnership with Cards & Specialist Services Ltd. of the C.S.S Group of Companies.

LEGIC Identsystems Ltd, leading provider of contactless Smart Card Technology for personal identification, gains major distributor and system integrator Cards & Specialist Services Ltd. as a new licence partner in the United Kingdom. This collaboration results in new security solutions based on the integration of LEGIC advant technology. LEGIC based access control systems as well as card and reader solutions will increasingly be available for the UK market.

The partnership allows Cards & Specialist Services Ltd. to offer its customers LEGIC based reader and transponder solutions to react to the rising demand for secure contactless LEGIC multi-applications in Great Britain.

“This agreement is crucial for our future business activities in the UK as well as abroad”, says Kevin J Burke, Managing Director of Cards & Specialist Services Ltd. “We can now respond quickly to the ever changing demands of leading manufacturers by providing security solutions based on the cutting-edge LEGIC advant technology that sets the benchmark in terms of security, scalability and cost-effective investment-protection.”

Dr Otto Eggimann, Vice President Sales and Business Development of LEGIC, states: “We are very confident of the partnership with Cards & Specialist Services
